

SAMUEL AND MARTHA MCKELVIE SCHOLARSHIP FOR STUDENTS INTERESTED IN A CAREER IN AGRICULTURAL SCIENCES AND NATURAL RESOURCES

Applications are now available at the College of Agricultural Sciences and Natural Resources Dean's Office for the 2013-2014 Samuel and Martha McKelvie Scholarship. Scholarships up to $1,400 per year are awarded to current undergraduate students who are interested in a career in agriculture or natural resources. Undergraduate students from all CASNR academic programs are eligible. Current McKelvie Scholars may re-apply.

Applicants must demonstrate high scholarship and give evidence of their interest in a career in agriculture or natural resources upon graduation. Recipients of the awards may apply for annual renewals. Renewals will be granted on the basis of academic performance as demonstrated by courses completed, work experience, and summer employment and/or internships.

Return application and Statement of Career Intentions (half-page essay) only to:
